Looking for an interesting yet fabulous place to stay? The Doublejack Guest House, as voted by Arizona Highways Magazine as one of the top 5 rural prides in the county in 2008, will see the fifth annual Bisbee Pride Festival, held on June 6, and the Annual Historic Home Tour, Nov. 27-28. Below: The Doublejack Bedroom. The Doublejack Guesthouse, newly renovated and remodeled, takes its name from a mining term describing a two-man rock drilling team. It has just been selected to be on the 2009 annual Chamber of Commerce Lodging Tour to be held on June 6 and the Annual Historic Home Tour, Nov. 27-28. Below: The Doublejack Bedroom.

As much as 20 degrees cooler than her Arizona neighbors, Bisbee is a delightful and accepting community which offers everything from fine dining to old west saloons, Victorian architecture, great hiking and world-class birding opportunities. Bisbee proudly displays its history like a continuous show off her finest jewels. Victorian-style homes perched on yawning bluffs, Victorian-style homes perched on yawning bluffs, and older she gets, the better she looks.
