SIEGEL — More than 3,700 pounds of marijuana was seized and nine people were arrested on Saturday after a traffic stop led local and federal authorities to two homes and a car.

The chain of events was set in motion last week when the Sierra Vista Police Department observed a white van leaving the area. Officers followed the vehicle, but it first, heading to a brief pursuit ending in the area of Buffalo Soldier Trail and Highway 92, Sierra Vista police Sgt. Lawrence Bourne said.

During a search of the vehicle, local enforcement officers discovered about 1,500 pounds of marijuana, Picard said.

The driver of the van, a Mexican citizen in the country illegally, was taken into custody.

After this incident, a search of the residence on Ironwood Drive by agents of ICE and the U.B. Fer-der Patrol uncovered about 1,500 pounds of marijuana, authorities said.

In a typical aloha fashion — spectators waving, applause and hands, the performance of holiday music in marching time was warmly greeted by the band's ly, was taken into custody.
